

JUSTICE - GIFTED

Wide Elegant mind that soberly gives justice-gifted
Men exulting words from seat of Justice ; be respected
For it needs the Court, in pleasant place be located
It must possess broad mind, to delight the depressed

Real Counsel-is daring in quest of truth under Edifice
Embodied with law; gentleman summit under Tower
Toil for truth without fear, in work-a-day practice-
Suppress the false & uphold the truth in duties regular.

Subject is vast, brain be sharp with talent adorned,
Justice flows impartial like water on the holy land
Let it flow-but the real Gem must not be drowned.
Truth,- that chases where it sees persons good.

Has our Constitution three main Organs-it is
Legislature, Executive & the Judiciary
Laws passed by raising hands by Legislators
Executive carries on with work leisurely

Our country peasants & men of Cities,-
Are waiting to see the Angel of Justice
This free Bharat henceforth to be nice-
Give-up foreign system to find new device

Knocking at the Temple doors of Justice are the helpless
The strong never choose to tread in path circuitous
We shall listen to Religion & laws like that of ocean waves-
That, with truth & morality deliver free Justice.

S.N. Kempagoudar,
District Judge Member
Karnataka Appellate Tribunal
Bangalore.

JUSTICE - GIFTED

Wide Elegant mind that soberly gives justice-gifted
Men exulting words from seat of Justice ; be respected
For it needs the Court, in pleasant place be located
It must possess broad mind, to delight the depressed

Real Counsel-is daring in quest of truth under Edifice
Embodied with law; gentleman summit under Tower
Toil for truth without fear, in work-a-day practice-
Suppress the false & uphold the truth in duties regular.

Subject is vast, brain be sharp with talent adorned,
Justice flows impartial like water on the holy land
Let it flow-but the real Gem must not be drowned.
Truth,- that chases where it sees persons good.

Has our Constitution three main Organs-it it
Legislature, Executive & the Judiciary
Laws passed by raising hands by Legislators
Executive carries on with work leisurely

Our country peasants & men of Cities,-
Are waiting to see the Angel of Justice
This free Bharat henceforth to be nice-
Give-up foreign system to find new device

Knocking at the Temple doors of Justice are the helpless
The strong never choose to tread in path circuitous
We shall listen to Religion & laws like that of ocean waves-
That, with truth & morality deliver free Justice.

S.N. Kempagoudar,
District Judge Member
Karnataka Appellate Tribunal
Bangalore.